Trae Tha Truth to headline Hungry For Hip Hop concert at The Social on June 17

MAY 23, 2016, 12:20 PM

Hip-hop artist Frazier Thompson, who performs as Trae Tha Truth, will headline the Hungry for Hip Hop benefit concert at The Social in downtown Orlando on June 17.

The 35-year-old rapper was born and raised in Houston. In addition to his several solo work, he is a member of the hip-hop duo ABN and the rap collective Screwed Up Click.

Trae Tha Truth has produced eight studio albums since 2003. Three of his records, 2006's "Restless," 2007's "Life Goes On" and 2015's "Tha Truth," all reached the Top 10 on Billboard's US Rap Albums chart.

The rapper released his latest album, "Tha Truth, Pt. 2," in February, featuring collaborations with T.I., Rick Ross, Wiz Khalifa and more.

The show, which is organized by Orlando radio station 104.5 The Beat, will also feature a rap cipher, artwork and a battle against DJ D Strong and D Royale.

This concert will help raise money for the Grand Avenue Economic Community Development Corp. also known as Pathlight HOME. According to its website, the organization looks to "provide affordable housing and economic opportunities for low income persons and especially the homeless in Central Florida."

Guests can also bring non-perishable food items to the concert to receive a discounted price on tickets.

Concertgoers must be 12 years or older to attend.
